10 REASONS FOR NOT ACCEPTING A COUNTEROFFER

1. You have now made your employer aware that you are unhappy. From this day on, your loyalty will always be in question.
2. When promotion time comes around, your employer will remember who is loyal and who is not.
3. When times get tough, your employer will begin the cutbacks with you.
4. Accepting a counteroffer is an insult to your intelligence and a blow to your personal pride: you were bought.
5. Where is the money for the counteroffer coming from? All companies have wage and salary guidelines, which must be followed. Is your next raise early?
6. Your company will immediately start looking to replace you with a new person at a better price.
7. The same circumstances that caused you to consider a change will repeat themselves in the future, even if you accept a counteroffer.
8. Statistics show that if you accept a counteroffer, the probability of voluntarily leaving in six months or being let go in one year is extremely high.
9. Once the word gets out, the relationship that you now enjoy with your co-workers will never be the same. You will lose the personal satisfaction of peer group acceptance.
10. Is this the type of company you want to work for if you have to threaten to resign before they give you what you are worth?
